McSHANE CONSTRUCTION SELECTED FOR ADDITIONAL OFFICE IMPROVEMENT ASSIGNMENT FOR OGLETREE DEAKINS

(Phase Two of Planned Class A Office Expansion to Accommodate Growth of Prestigious Law Firm)

(Rosemont, Illinois) – Jeffrey A. Raday, President of McShane Construction Company, is pleased to announce that the firm was recently selected to complete an expansion assignment on behalf of Ogletree, Deakins, Nash, Smoak & Stewart, P.C. (Ogletree Deakins). The new legal services suite will add approximately 6,000 square feet to the firm's existing space and will include 18 private offices, three conference rooms, six soft offices and one breakroom.

McShane Construction recently completed the firm's Class A, 20,300 square foot office space build-out when the prestigious law firm relocated its Chicago office from 20 South Clark Street, Suite 2500, Chicago, Illinois to the more spacious and contemporary office suite at 155 North Wacker Drive, Suite 4300, Chicago, Illinois. Ogletree Deakins is one of the nation's largest labor and employment law firms, employing more than 500 attorneys throughout its 40 U.S. offices.

The original build-out assignment included 36 private offices, 12 soft offices, three conference rooms, an extensive law library and a kitchen/breakroom. The upscale office environment features high-end finishes, such as intricate millwork, attractive fabric paneling and motorized sunshades. Additional aesthetic interests include an artistically detailed lobby lighting system and intricate stone flooring. This sophisticated office environment also offers employees and guests striking views of the Chicago skyline.

McShane Construction also completed Ogletree Deakins' tenant build-out and expansion at the firm's former location at 20 South Clark Street.

"McShane Construction has demonstrated its ability to complete assignments in a variety of environments, including a distinguished downtown office tower location," remarks Raday. "McShane is looking forward to completing another assignment that will enhance the strategic goals and initiatives of this well respected client."

The 45-story high-rise located at 155 North Wacker is a glass and curtainwall office building located in Chicago's Loop that was designed by the architectural firm of Goettsch Partners, Inc. The U.S. Green Building Council has designated this impressive downtown high-rise as a LEED™-Silver facility.

Atlanta-based ASD Architects will provide the architectural services for the Ogletree Deakins tenant improvement assignment.
