McShane Construction has long established itself as an expert in the growing medical construction field through its leadership and involvement with high quality projects. This unique medical office space was built specifically to accommodate the needs of this practice.

McShane had recently completed the shell construction of the four-story, 64,000 square foot Prairie Pointe Medical Office Center that offers tenants immediate access and frontage on I-90, presence in a growing region with strong demographics, and close proximity to numerous area hospitals. KLLM Architects, Inc. provided the architectural and design services for the shell building, and Proteus Group provided architectural services for the Suburban Surgical Care tenant suite.

The Prairie Pointe Medical Office Center is a co-development of McShane Development Company, The Rego Development & Realty Group, Ltd. and SSCS Properties, LLC. Tenant spaces from 1,500 square feet to a full floor suite of 15,844 square feet remain available.

For more information on leasing opportunities at the Prairie Pointe Medical Office Center, contact exclusive marketing agents, Patrice Marks at 847.852.3216 or Christina Adams at 847.852.3206 of National Realty Network or visit the building's website at www.PrairiePointeMedical.com.
