McSHANE CONSTRUCTION COMPANY RECEIVES INDUSTRY AWARD FOR OUTSTANDING SAFETY RECORD

(Chicago's Associated General Contractors of America Chapter Recognizes McShane Construction for its Excellence in Safety Performance)

(Rosemont, Illinois) – Jeffrey A. Raday, President of McShane Construction Company, is pleased to announce that the firm recently received the prestigious Safety Recognition Award from Chicago's Associated General Contractors of America Chapter (Builders Association) that serves to recognize the firm's outstanding safety performance throughout 2009.

The Builders Association took note of McShane Construction's commitment to maintaining a safe workplace when it honored the firm with this designation at the organization's May 27, 2010 meeting. This year's award establishes the company as an eight-time recipient of the honor since the implementation of the program in 1999.

"Each time McShane Construction receives this award, it is a testament to the effectiveness of our detailed Safety Program. The standards that are established and maintained on each McShane jobsite ensures that our employees return home unharmed at the conclusion of every work day,” states Raday. “I congratulate every member of the McShane Construction team for their contribution toward this goal.”

The Builders Association has a long history of helping to keep Chicagoland's construction workers safe on a jobsite and has always encouraged its member companies to develop strong safety programs.

McShane Construction's Safety First, Last and Always motto has proven noteworthy in light of this most recent safety award. The firm is regularly recognized by industry peers and construction related associations for its commitment to jobsite and building safety. Safety is consistently at the forefront for all McShane employees through training, inspections and steady communication with regard to its importance.
