McSHANE CONSTRUCTION AWARDED 15,300 S.F. CLASS A OFFICE ASSIGNMENT FOR OGLETREE DEAKINS

(Relocation Project Marks Third Assignment for McShane From One of Chicago's Most Prominent Law Firms)

(Rosemont, Illinois) – Jeffrey A. Raday, President of McShane Construction Company, is pleased to announce the recent award of the 15,300 square foot, Class A office improvement assignment for Ogletree, Deakins, Nash, Smoak & Stewart, P.C. (Ogletree Deakins). The prestigious law firm is relocating its Chicago office from 20 South Clark Street, Suite 2500, Chicago, Illinois to 155 North Wacker Drive, Suite 4300, Chicago, Illinois. Ogletree Deakins is one of the nation's largest labor and employment law firms, employing 500 attorneys throughout 39 U.S. offices.

The new professional services suite will include 36 private offices, 12 soft offices, three conference rooms, an extensive law library and a kitchen/breakroom. The upscale office environment will incorporate high-end finishes, such as intricate millwork, attractive fabric paneling and motorized sunshades. Additional aesthetic interests include an artistically detailed lobby lighting fixture and intricate stone flooring.

McShane Construction previously completed Ogletree Deakins' original tenant build-out at 20 South Clark Street in addition to also completing an 18,000 square foot, multi-phase upgrade and expansion assignment for the firm at this location. Those assignments included the installation of custom millwork, marble flooring and Japanese etched glass throughout the office space.

"McShane Construction has extensive experience completing Class A office suites for numerous professional services firms within high-rise office complexes. We are delighted to have been chosen for this important assignment and look forward to delivering this high-quality office environment for Ogletree Deakins that will serve to augment and enhance the workings of this prestigious law firm," remarks Raday.

The 45-story high-rise located at 155 North Wacker is a glass and curtainwall office building located in Chicago's Loop that was designed by the architectural firm of Goettsch Partners, Inc. The U.S. Green Building Council has designated this impressive downtown high-rise as a LEED™-Silver facility.

ASD Architects is providing the architectural services for the Ogletree Deakins tenant improvement assignment that McShane Construction is scheduled to complete in September 2010.
